Phuket:

Phuket is located in southern Thailand and is the biggest Island of Thailand and sits on the Andaman Sea. The nearest province to the north is Phang-nga and the nearest provinces to the east are Phang-nga and Krabi. It has a large Chinese influence, with many Chinese shrines and Chinese Restaurants around the City. While the Chinese community is quite big, there are many other ethnicities bringing all their traditions and festivals from all over the world to Phuket. Being a big Island, Phuket is surrounded by many magnificent Beaches such as Rawai, Patong, Karon, Kamala, Kata Yai, Kata Noi, and Mai Khao. Also fantastic classical architecture such as the Goom Restaurant and the famous Phuket NIGHTLIFE, the Island is a hotspot for tourists in Thailand.

Krabi:

Krabi, the capital of southern Thailand's Krabi Province, is a resort town near the Andaman coast. It lies in an area of limestone karsts and mangrove forests. On a hilltop reached by stairs, the Tiger Cave Temple is a Buddhist site with panoramic views. Khao Kanab Nam, 2 slanting hills rising out of the water, form a local landmark. Andaman Sea destinations like the Phi Phi Islands are accessible by ferry.
