The City tour includes Reunification Palace a historical monument with a back story seeped in the darkest days of Vietnam's past. From Norodom Palace to Independence Palace 1868-1966" explores the century-long history of the building that once served as the seat of the French colonial government. In 1954, this building was renamed Independence Palace. It subsequently witnessed many dramatic episodes in the rise and decline of the government of Ngo Dinh Diem, the founding leader of the Republic of Vietnam. Continue the tour with War Museum., which was formerly known as the Museum of Chinese and American War Crimes, primarily deals with the American War, but the French-colonial period and conflicts with China are also documented. US armored vehicles, artillery pieces, bombs and infantry weapons are on display outside. One corner of the grounds is devoted to the notorious French and South Vietnamese prisons on Phu Quoc and Con Son islands. Artifacts include the most iconic of French appliances, the guillotine, and the notoriously inhumane 'tiger cages' used to house war prisoners US invasion of Vietnam, and contextualize its devastating impact on the country's civilians, this remarkable and deeply moving museum is an essential visit. Continue the tour you will be escorted to the The Hundred Years Red Cathedral -Notre Dame Cathedral, The Old Post Office, China town.

Day 3

HO CHI MINH CITY CUCHI TUNNEL – flight to DANANG

Morning proceed on a guided half day tour of Cu Chi tunnel 75 Km (one and a half hour drive) . Years of French occupation and a lengthy war with the United States have marked Vietnam since the late 19th century. One of the most impressive feats of wartime engineering is the famed Cu Chi Tunnels, located in the countryside near Ho Chi Minh City. Explore this monument to perseverance. Gain important insight into the prolonged struggle against invading armies, and appreciation for the resilience and spirit of the Vietnamese people. The residents of Cu Chi took the war underground into a highly developed network of tunnels that at its height stretched as far as Cambodia and included meeting rooms, kitchens and triage areas. Imperceptible from the ground, opposing armies could roll their tanks over the bunkers without causing damage to the tunnels below. Living conditions were harsh – in addition to fighting the war, resident's battled food and oxygen scarcity, venomous insects, and cramped living quarters. Activities in Cu Chi Tunnels, where you will –

- >>Watch a documentary film that takes you to the past with an introduction of the Cu Chi Tunnels.
- >>Crawl short distances through the tunnels that were used by the guerrilla fighters during the Vietnam War. You may see a kitchen, living quarters, and a meeting room on the way. The tunnels have been enlarged so visitors can crawl through them, imagine what it must have been like before!
- >>Learn about how different types of booby trap – the symbol of guerrilla warfare – were created and set up.
- >>Visit the weapons room and learn how the ingenious Viet Cong soldiers made them.
- >>Get adventurous and go to the shooting range to fire a real AK-47. The cost for the bullets are not included in this price.

Transfer to Airport for your Flight to Da Nang, Upon reaching the Danang airport collect your luggage, and at the exit you will be received by our representative who will escort you to your hotel in Da Nang. Evening rest and relaxation at the hotel..Time permitting explore the city on your own for shopping. Breakfast at the hotel, Local lunch and Indian Dinner.

Day 5

Da Nang > flight to HANOI

Morning transfer to airport for your onward flight to NoiBoi International Airport, Hanoi, the capital of Vietnam, is known for its centuries-old architecture and a rich culture with Southeast Asian, Chinese and French influences. At its heart is the chaotic Old Quarter, where the narrow streets are roughly arranged by trade.

After noon proceed for a city tour with your local English speaking guide, visit The nation's founder at the Ho Chi Minh Complex and Ba Dinh Square, an important point of pilgrimage for the Vietnamese. Explore the nearby simple cottage on stilts where Ho Chi Minh lived and worked during his humble beginnings as a revolutionary, also known as the Presidential Palace, an excellent example of Hanoi's classical French architectural heritage, and Ho Chi Minh refused to live in the opulent structure for symbolic reasons, opting to build a traditional Vietnamese stilt house on the grounds instead. Stop by the iconic One Pillar Pagoda - a unique Vietnamese architecture reminiscent of a lotus blossom rising from a pond and hear the legend of its construction. Next, visit the Temple of Literature, built in 1076. This is Vietnam's first university, and it was established within the temple to educate Vietnam's royalty, mandarins and other members of the elite. The university functioned for 700 years and its gardens and well-preserved architecture offer a fascinating glimpse into Vietnam's past. Continue to the Old Quarter of Hanoi, also known as the 36 streets. This bustling area of narrow streets is home to thousands of small businesses and shopkeepers, each offering unique handicrafts and textiles. Starting from Ly Thai To statue - the founder of Hanoi then wander around HoanKiem Lake and Ngoc Son Temple (from outside view) located on an islet in the lake. HoanKiem Lake is the center point of Hanoi and home to a rare endangered giant turtle species. Its name "Returned Sword" comes from a legend of a sacred sword being lent to an ancient Vietnamese King by a holy turtle from the lake and later returned to the turtle. You will walk to Hang Gai Street - the silk shopper's paradise - where you can find the best silk in Vietnam.

Continental Breakfast Indian Lunch & Dinner. Overnight hotel at Holiday Inn or similar.

Day 6

HANOI - HALONG BAY CRUISE

Today proceed to Halong Bay for the Cruise, the World Heritage as designated by UNESCO in 1994. Halong Bay is in the northeast of Vietnam. It seems to be one of the seven natural wonders of the world— so it was recently voted, two and a half hours by road from Hanoi.

Upon arriving in Halong City, you will take a tender transfer to your junk and set sail through the bay while lunch is served. As you cruise the magical bay, you will notice thousands of sculpted limestone islands rising from the waves like dragons' teeth. After a lunch of fresh seafood on board, we can visit the Surprising Grotto, stop for swimming or kayaking, passing floating villages and approach small islands to enjoy their beauty. Back to the boat for dinner. Evening attend activities on the boat or relax at your own leisure.

Overnight on board.
